

TRINITY TRIUMPHS

- ✓ 100% of Holy Trinity's 2015 Graduates earned New York State Regents Diplomas.
- ✓ 100% of the Class of 2015 went on to two and four year colleges or entered the military.
- ✓ The Graduating Class of 2015 earned over 36 million dollars in scholarships.
- ✓ Holy Trinity's Advanced Placement courses have been authorized by the College Board.
- ✓ Over 40 Trinity women were honored in 2015 with the Women of Science of St. John's University Award for Academic Excellence in Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Math and Computer Science.
- ✓ Holy Trinity was voted "Best Catholic School" and "Best High School Spirit" for the third year in a row in the 2015 "Best of LI" poll.
- ✓ Holy Trinity has graduates currently continuing their athletic careers at some of the best colleges and universities, including: Fairleigh-Dickinson University, Ithaca College, Utica College, Rutgers University, Marist College, James Madison University, Duke University, Quinnipiac University, Northeastern University and Fordham University.
- ✓ Holy Trinity has students that went to some of the most prestigious colleges for Fine Arts/Architecture, including: Cooper Union, Fashion Institute of Technology and LIM College.
- ✓ During the last academic year, Holy Trinity's Hunger Project donated more than 4 tons of food to local food pantries, and over 100 cartons of toys to PRONTO in Brentwood and Our Lady of Miraculous Medal, Wyandanch.
- ✓ In 2015, Holy Trinity collected over $13,000 in support of various organizations: more than $8,000 went to our sister school in Guatemala, $5,000 for Emmaus Catholic Work House in Albany coordinated by a Holy Trinity alumnus and nearly $1000 for the Interfaith Nutrition Network and Project Hope.
- ✓ Long Island Blood Services awarded Holy Trinity the Gold Award for the 2014-2015 school year. The Trinity community donated over 300 pints of blood.
- ✓ During the 2014-2015 school year, Holy Trinity students have volunteered over 30,000 hours in service to others through Holy Trinity's volunteer program.
- ✓ In 2014, the Select Choir was awarded "Best in Class" for Jazz Choirs at Festival Disney held in Walt Disney World.
- ✓ The Tribute (Holy Trinity's Yearbook) has won First Place in the American Scholastic Press Association National Competition, Second Place in the National Scholastic Press Association and a Silver Medal in the Empire State Scholastic Press Association for the last 5 years.