

‘Twas the Week Before Christmas...

‘Twas the week before Christmas, when all through the school.

All the students were studying, missing homeworks not cool.

The decorations have been hung around the building with care.

In the hopes that our Savior, will be here to share.

The students are settled all snug in their seats.

While equations and essays fill up their sheets.

The concert completed, the Penance service done.

The birth of the Christ child will soon make us one.

The Liturgy is Friday. Let’s fill up the hall!

The students must come, in uniform all.

Parents and alumni, we welcome them back.

The Mass that we celebrate, we hope to be packed.

The reason for the season is clear on Christmas day.

Jesus is born. He will show us the way.

The world will rejoice, for this baby so small,

Merry Christmas and God's blessings to Titans one and all.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Kathleen Moran". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long horizontal flourish at the end.

Kathleen Moran

Principal